

Stay Daddy Stay

Nikka Costa

Six in the morning
I hear you go
You've got a plane to catch
You told me so
Flying to new york
Then on to rome
Sometimes it seems as if
The world's your home
Well, I understand
You're a busy man
But, listen while I sing these words

Stay, daddy stay
Please stay, daddy, stay
I won't let you leave today
So stay, please daddy stay
Once day I'm certain
You'll take me along
To hear you play guitar
And sing your songs
Until that moment
I must be good
And try to be patient
Gee, I wish I could
Before you try say goodbye
Listen while I sing these words

Stay, daddy, stay
Please stay, daddy stay
I won't let you leave today, no way
So stay, please daddy, stay
Daddy - stay
