

Face In The Crowd

Nikki Flores

You did this to yourself
Boy it ain't like I hate you
But things ain't quite like they were
I'm learning to love myself
Cuz you know it don't do any good
If your not standing there anymore
I gave you my all
Cuz I was told that I could give it to you baby
Did you even love me at all?
Ha, let me let you know what you mean to me now

You're here tonight
I'm looking out, but all I see is just a face in the crowd
Such a familiar smile ain't so familiar now
Cuz all I see is just a face in tha crowd
The lips I used to kiss
The ears I used to miss
A heart i used to belong to
A love that now I doubt
Cuz it ain't so special now
Cuz all I see is just a face in the crowd

I never thought you'd say
That you didnt wanna see me again, no
You end it this way
Boy you sent me to my grave
The very mintue you walked away from
Everything we made
I gave you my all
Cuz I was told that I could give it to you baby
Did you even love me at all?
Ha, let me let you know just what you mean to me now

You're here tonight
I'm looking out, but all I see is just a face in the crowd
Such a familiar smile ain't so familiar now
Cuz all I see is just a face in tha crowd
The lips I used to kiss
The ears I used to miss
A heart i used to belong to
A love that now I doubt
Cuz it ain't so special now
Cuz all I see is just a face in the crowd

How could you walk away from me
When I reached out for you and me
Boy my heart was on the line
I didn't mean to waste your time
Was I just another girl
You pretended was your world
Well it's too late to turn around
Cuz your just a face in the crowd

You're here tonight
I'm looking out, but all I see is just a face in the crowd
Such a familiar smile ain't so familiar now
Cuz all I see is just a face in tha crowd

The lips I used to kiss
The ears I used to miss
A heart i used to belong to
A love that now I doubt
Cuz it ain't so special now
Cuz all I see is just a face in the crowd

A face in the crowd
That's all you were to me
Cuz that's all I wish you'd be
