Supreme Humanism of Megalomania

I asset my claim of uncompromising empowerment I am like as unto Atum lord of all whose spontaneous self generation Led to the appearance of the earliest gods and thus the material universe there is none higher

I appear in glory as that god who eats men and lives on the gods as sun god I am reborn From the womb od the sky goddess nut Her aching body is the sky Her nakedness the skin on which the stars rest

I am AtumKhepri who came into being of himself I am he who opened a door in the sky Who rules from his throne and adjudgeth those who are born

I am the horned bull who rules the sky Lord of celestial appearings The great illuminator who came forth from fire to hardness the years I am the jackal of jackals I am Shu who breathes air into the limits of sky and earth

I draw unto myself all the forces on the universe I become not merely a god but the universe itself I am alone in making the transformation from man into god I am released from this world of servile obligation to false temporal power who claim to be divine Nile
