

Just Because You Love Me

Nils Lofgren

I flushed a thousand pills today
Just because you love me
I broke the guns, tossed the bullets away
Just because you love me
You took my blue heart out
Scraped away all the pain and doubt
Free to be me, happy looking for me

This dark world is a kinder place
Just because you love me
My soul can breath, big days i can face
Just because you love me
A simple walk in a tender rain
A faithful wind and a demon slain
Come from a gutter no child should know
Now I dream with a life and a soul
Just because you love me
Yes

Just because you love me
I'm alright
Yeah because you love me
It's alright to be me
Just because you love me
I'm alright I feel free
Yeah, just because you love me
Just because you love me
