Armies play, families fight Long workday, sleepless night Some try so hard but not for the team So some must dream

Restless souls, shattered hearts
Talk of peace that never starts
Self-proclaimed saviours just float downstream
So some must dream
Follow your heart, yes, some must dream

Dreams sweet dreams, dreams
Dreams sweet dreams, dreams
Dreams sweet dreams, dreams
Dreams sweet dreams, dreams
Dream, dream

People cry, some for joy We're not here to destroy Some live so poor and still shine so clean Yes, some must dream Follow your heart, yes, some must dream

Dream, dream, some must dream
