

In the world
There's something about the feeling you get with a knife's endeavor Gonna get on you all over your heart That feeling in the night of something on your back
Cat's eyes in the shadows come alive

I came alone to find you motionless
Meet me in the Violent Night

In the world
There's something about the feeling you get when the black runs over Gonna get on you all over your dreams
That feeling in the night of someoHe behind
your back
Cats eyes in the Shadows Come Alive

I came alone to find you motionless
Meet me in the Violent Night
The Violent Night, The Violent Night
To lose your light, stare in the Violent Night
It's nowhere in time, to lose your light
The Violent Night
