

Saturday Night Creepers

NIM VIND

When it's finally over
Who decides your end?
When you know my world lives in loneliness

In our dreams the silence
Is a fortunes end
And you know the dream lives to save us so come on

In the Dark my world lives
And never in your dreams do you come on closer to this then now
In the Dark remember as you go We'll be waiting when the night is young and so lonely.

In our dreams the silence
Is a fortunes end
And you know the dream lives to save us so
come on

In the Dark remember as you go We'll be waiting when the night is young and
so lonely.
