

2003

Nina Gordon

hey baby why'd you turn away i was about to say something baby i thought would make you smile at least for a little while oh well baby that's the way it goes right from my head to my toes and you're the first to know that i've got a brilliant plan i hope you understand i want to meet in 2003 i want to see what the future can bring to me and when i do i'll meet you here my darling and when i'm free i'll be waiting where i said i would be my love will you wait for me what we've found is such a precious thing that's what i 'm trying to sing but before i lose my nerve i better write down these words 'cause i don't know what you heard and you know that i won't change my mind i made a promise to be true let them say that it's a selfish game but i don' t play with anyone but you