New Year's Eve

Nina Gordon

Normally I'd be french-twisting my hair And selecting the right earrings to wear Oh it's a special evening for most Normally I'd be proposing a toast But not this year

Because I'm here the party's all around me You're there indifference has found me I know it's not in fashion Wearing heartache on your sleeve But I'm here and you're there so who cares What I wear on New Year's Eve

Normally I'd be knee-deep in champagne I'd kick my heels up until neighbors complain Oh it's a glamorous evening for most And normally I'd be upstaging the host

But not this year Because I'm here the party's all around me You're there indifference has found me I know I should have dressed up But I just can't make believe Now I'm here and you're there so who cares What I wear on New Year's Eve

If you're flirting with some other girl tonight I'm not flirting with some other guy I just keep thinking how last year At midnight you blew me away With the resolution that you made

I'm here the party's all around me You're there indifference has found me And tonight before the ball drops I'll grab my coat and leave I'm here and you're there so who cares What I wear on New Year's Eve I'm here and you're there so who cares What I wear on New Year's Eve
