

Sometimes I Ring Up Heaven

Nina Hagen

Sometimes I ring up to heaven
When I'm all alone
Sometimes I ring up heaven
When I'm all alone
I can call my god
He stays by the phone

When my friends can't be bothered
He will hear my call (2x)
He won't let his child stumble, oh no!
He won't let me fall

I may not enjoy the bays of meech
But everything is really not what it seems
He said "Hey child don't worry
I'm standing on the line"
So I'll keep on dialing this true friend of mine
This royal telephone
Is one god's sent invention
He can tune in every nation
Still can be passing on Attention
Night time day time
I got main line to the throne
So I'll keep on dialing his Royal Telephone

Sometimes I ring up heaven
Anytime I fell all alone
Hmmm, yes I do!
Sometimes I ring up heaven
When I'm feeling all alone
I can call my god in the morning
Noon time in the evening
Cause he'll stay by the phone.
