

I Can't See Nobody

Nina Simone

I walk the lonely streets, I watch the people passing by
I used to smile and say hello, guess I was just a happy girl
Then you happened girl, this feeling that possesses me
I just can't move myself, I guess it all just had to be

No, I can't see nobody, no, I can't see nobody
My eyes can only look at you, you

I used to have a brain, I used to think of many things
I used to watch the falling rain and listen to the sweet birds sing

No, I can't see nobody, no, I can't see nobody
My eyes can only look at you, you

Every single word you hear now is Coming right from my heart this heart of mine
I never felt like this before a love like yours so young and fi ne
Now as I try to forget you it doesn't work out any way
I loved you such a long time ago but in my eyes you'll always b e

No, I can't see nobody, no, I can't see nobody
My eyes can only look at you

No, I can't see nobody, no, I can't see nobody
My eyes can only look at you
