

Saratoga

Nina Simone

Oh Saratoga, will you dream
I know how love must seem
My love is far away

Oh Saratoga, will you smile
And dream with me a while
My love is far away

Love, it isn't fair
When you're not there, it isn't fair
The time, where has it gone
When you're alone, it has no end

Oh Saratoga, will you dream
I know how love must seem
Time waits and then it's gone

Love, it isn't fair
When you're not there, it isn't fair
And time, where has it gone
When you're alone, it has no end

Oh Saratoga, will you dream
I know how love must seem
Time waits and then it's gone

Time waits and then it's gone
