The Assignment Song

Nina Simone

Bouncing off your wall Pathways of my mind Are on their way Another way For today

Ohho

You want me to see you I can not see you You want me to come for you I can not come for you You want an assignment I see no concession

Shall I hang my head with yours and be blue Send alway laughter And spend all my time, com'on darling Thinking about you Don't you know there are things I can't do

My mind is on it's way Another way For today

Ohho

My spirit is so foreign You want silence My spirit I'd taking flight But baby you wanna cry tonight

Shall I hang my head with yours Send away laughter and fun And spend all my time Thinking about you Only about you Don't you know there are things That I can't do My mind is on it's way Another way For today Heyheyy...
