

Heartbeat

Nina Sky

They say you don't know a good thing 'til it's gone
I say you need a little time to realize it's wrong
Got so tired of waiting for the brand new you
How could a bond this weak really pull through?

Yeah we tried
And days they passed us by
Broke down and we cried, yeah
But man the relief that I feel inside
Because...

I feel my heartbeat now
I feel my heartbeat now
I feel my heartbeat now
(I can feel my heart beating)
I feel my heartbeat now
(I can feel my heart beating again)

I know you gave it your best, you told me time and time again
It just wasn't cutting it, the time you were putting in
I feel your pain but the pleasure's much better
This rhythm that I'm feeling got me writing this letter

Yeah we tried,
And days they passed us by,
Broke down and we cried, yeah
But man the relief that I feel inside
Because...

I feel my heartbeat now
I feel my heartbeat now
I feel my heartbeat now
(I can feel my heart beating)
I feel my heartbeat now
(I can feel my heart beating again)
