Runaway

Nina Sky

Sometimes I feel like I wanna runaway Pack my things and make a quick getaway From the drama surrounding, and the world around me Sometimes I feel like I wanna runaway Pack my things and make a quick getaway But my heart keeps punding, and it wont allow me

I need some time to get away from the problems in my life To relieve my mind and put aside all of this shit attackin me i nside All of this drama surrounding me, drives me crazy constantly I just need some time to breathe and take my mind off of everyt hing

Try to keep it behind me, but I'm always reminded Of everything that bothers me, like you can't take breaks from reality Just keep on moving and keep on doing what will keep my life ru nning smoothly Just a moment to relax, sit back alone, no one to bother me, I' ll finally be free

I gotta runaway Gotta do it now Gotta find some time alone somehow I gotta runaway Gotta do it now Gonna make it all work out

Sometimes I feel like I wanna runaway (runaway, runaway)...
