

A Girl In California

Nine Days

I love a girl in California,
But I married a girl up in New York,
I miss that girl in California,
And everyday I miss her more,
Well you can say that I am crazy,
To give up everything I got,
But like the sun I'm heading westward,
Until I set in Hollywood

So long,
Don't you wait up for me,
I'll be long gone you know,
And if I'm so wrong,
You can say you knew I would be,
And I'll crawl home to you alone

I want a sky that's never ending,
There is too much ran here in New York,
I got a name in California,
When I get there I will look her up

And I say So long,
Don't you wait up for me,
I'll be long gone you know,
And if I'm so wrong,
You can say you knew I would be,
And I'll crawl home to you alone

I'm taking the best day of my life and leaving,
I'm giving the best of what I got,
I'm leaving the jet stream like a start still burning,
I am living everyday all in,

So long,
Don't you wait up for me,
I'll be long gone you know,
And if I'm so wrong,
You can say you knew I would be,
And I'll crawl home to you alone
Yes, I'll crawl home to you,
And I'll crawl home to you
Alone.....

I love a girl in California,
But I married a girl up in New York,
I miss that girl in California,
So here I come to her alone
