

Devil You Know

Nine Days

Isabel it's me
So open up your door and let me in Its getting cold
I'm sorry for all the things I said
You know I didn't mean them
You're not getting old
So what if it's true
I'm not going anywhere without you
I pretend, but I don't wanna be alone
So won't you let me turn the key?
You know that you'd be lost without me
Sometimes it's better the devil that you know
Don't give up on me
I'm coming in the window
I'm getting bold
Can't keep away from one divide
You never wear a disguise
You see through it all
I'm awake and I believe
That the good things don't come easy
I Spin around your earth just like the moon
So if you can find a way
To forgive, forget your bruises
Sometimes its better, the devil that you know
So what if it's true
I'm not going anywhere without you
And I pretend but I don't wanna be alone
So from me to you
On my sleeve I wear what I choose
It's better the devil that you know
So here's my only truth
I'm not going anywhere without you
And I pretend but I don't wanna be alone
So won't you let me turn the key?
You know that you'd be lost without me
sometimes it's better the devil that you know
So won't you turn the key?
You know that you'd be lost without me
sometimes it's better the devil that you know you know
you know
you know
