

I Feel Fine

Nine Days

Breathing out and breathing in is harder than it's ever been for me

God I think you're beautiful you're stirring every chemical in me and I see you standing here and I can't believe it whispering a symphony and I think you mean it

But there you go again
walking out on me
but I will be okay
I will be okay
cuz I feel fine

Long ago I dreamt of you the memories are nothing new to me and now you're coming back to me you're everything I wanted you to be but I see you talking here
and I can't believe it
I try to make it clear that I think you mean it

But there you go again
drifting out on me
but I will be okay
I will be okay

Where were you yesterday ?
Why did you run away ?
What did you do for me ? you believe it for so long but now you're back again and I won't let you in cuz I will be okay

I will be okay
I will be okay
I will be okay
cuz I feel fine
yeah I feel fine
I've never been better
yeah I feel fine
I've never been better
