

Wanna Be

Nine Days

To watch the leaves grow on the trees with you is out of question.
I walk into this summer all alone the usual session.
You feel your instinct then you act but was it your intention,
To leave me down and broken now you've ended our ascension.
Yeah.
I still can feel the beach sand in my shoes. Remember when,
We talked along the ocean's song 'til blue from black fade in?
But that was then I learned to live without you far within'.
I ask you why you're back to try to let me lose again?
You brought me here you wet my taste.
You disapeer without a trace.
It wasn't me who made the call.
'Cause now I wanna be.
Where you SLEEP,
Where you LAUGH,
Where you BRETHER!
And I hate to SAY,
Still I SWAY!
Brown your eyes,
Gone away.
Should I feel some closure I deserve if that at least.
And would you be so kind to show reasons for your release?
You woke me up from a distant past I left behind complete.
The message that you sent that night now falls to bittersweet.
Was it me my honesty?
You fail to show I never know.
It wasn't me who made the call.
'Cause now I wanna be.
Where you SLEEP,
Where you LAUGH,
Where you BRETHER!
And I hate to SAY,
Still I SWAY!
Brown your eyes,
Gone away.
Was it me my honesty?
You fail to show I never know.
You brought me here you wet my taste.
You disapeer without a trace.
Did ya' think I'd ever lead you wrong?
Just know I'll save all of our moments that we are.
Still I wanna be.
Where you SLEEP,
Where you LAUGH,
Where you BRETHER!
And I hate to SAY,
Still I SWAY!
Brown your eyes,
Gone away.
Now I wanna be.
Someday you'll wish you never.
Where you SLEEP,
Someday you'll wish you never.
Where you LAUGH,
Someday you'll wish you never.
where you BRETHER.
Someday you'll wish you never.

And I hate to SAY,
Someday you'll wish you never.
Still I SWAY,
Someday you'll wish you never.
Brown your eyes,
Someday you'll wish you never.
Gone away.
Someday you'll wish you never.
It took it all away.
It took it all away.
