

Escape

Nine Lashes

Another day
Another chain to break
Another way to tie myself within my words
To calm the ache
To call a name
It's so impossible it seems

I found a way inside
And everybody's here
It's so free all over me as I'm letting go

Now come along and find yourself
You're not so alone, escape your hell

I'm done with fake
I'll never live for me
It's for your sake i'm breathing now
Coming awake
Leaving my old mistakes
Not so impossible it seems

And I found a way inside
And everybody's here
It's so free all over me as I'm letting go

Now come along and find yourself
You're not so alone, escape your hell
