

Word of Advice

Nine Lashes

Listen to me
Cause I know its over
You'll throw it away
Throw it away and tell me it's ok
When all it is possible im making your day
Cause I've something to say

When falling down
No need to wait
I tell it's alright, it's alright
Walker of waves He'll lead the way
I tell you it's alright, it's alright

The free ones bleed
For you to take the key
Replaced to day three
If only you cared
Now the clocks ticking all
Your precious seconds away
As you struggle and strain

When falling down
No need to wait
I tell it's alright, it's alright
Walker of waves He'll lead the way
I tell you it's alright, it's alright
