

What's a season in a right
If you can't have anything
What's the reason in a rhyme
If a plan means anything
What's the meaning in a crime
It's a fan is anything
Where the leaning in a line
It's a brand
It's a brand

How a culture comes again
It was all here yesterday
And you swear it's not a trend
Doesn't matter anyways
They're only here to talk to friends
Nothing new is everyday
You could shit upon the stage they'll be fans
They'll be fans
They'll be fans
They'll be fans

All the kids will eat it up
If it's packaged properly
Steal a sound and imitate
Keep a format equally
not an ode--just the facts
What our problem is nowadays
An idea is what we lack
It doesn't matter anyways

All the kids will eat it up
If it's packaged properly
Steal a sound and imitate
Keep a format equally
Not an ode--just the facts
Where our world is nowadays
An idea is what we lack
It doesn't matter anyways

Hey
Hey
Hey
Hey
Hey
Hey
