

My Soul

Nitin Sawhney

I long to know
All your secrets
I want to walk
Through your fire
Light up my eyes
With your smile

I was awakened
By magic
I was alone
In this world
Take me away from here

Life spinning round
At a blistering pace
I've been shot
From a gun
To your final embrace
My soul, your heart
Two worlds
Apart
This life
Is all we have

How could this steal
All these feelings
How could they lie
To this world
A picture away
From your smile

Life spinning round
At a blistering pace
I've been shot
From a gun
To your final embrace
My soul, your heart
Two worlds
Apart
This life
Is all we have

One soul displaced
One heart replaced
Feelings defaced
Invade our space
No one left
To give us

Back our time
We could climb
Every mountain
Swim to every sea
When the all world
Is asleep
We can set
Ourselves free

My soul, your heart
Two worlds
Apart
This life
Is all we have

Mmm
Yeah, yeah
We could climb
Every mountain
Swim to every sea
When all the world
Is asleep
We can set
Ourselves free
We could climb
Every mountain
Swim to every sea
When all the world
Is asleep

We can set
Ourselves free
My soul, your heart
Two worlds
Apart
This life
