

I'm fighting it, fighting it, fighting it
Till I am winning
Rewinding it, winding it, winding it
To the beginning
Erom on
(Erom on, erom on)

I open the window
I open the door
When I'm closing
My room and my house
And backwards I'm walking
To your house
Erom on, erom on
Erom on, erom on

It's like driving a car
By looking in the mirror
Forwards in reverse
I'm touching the walls
And the corners
Erom on, erom on
Erom on, erom on

You say words in reverse
You say words in reverse
(Erom on, erom on)
(Erom on, erom on)

A doorplate, your number
I go up the steps to your room
I'm facing ya, facing ya, facing ya
And you are saying
"Erom on, erom on"
"Erom on, erom on"

You say words in reverse
You say words in reverse

And I'm walking to my room
I'm closing the door

(Erom on, erom on)
(Erom on)
(Erom on)
