

Down On Your Knees

Nitzer Ebb

one more chance
nothing to loose
one last breathe
it's your's if you choose take it or leave it
find and excuse
tell yourself
you've paid your dues

the more that you push resistance will build
the harder you come
that prophecy will be filled

down on your knees

you my block my every move my aim is true
but you've something to prove you reap unjust rewards
you fight a cause
to hear applauds

and now all said and done
and you're telling me
you're the only one
raise up your hand and swear that the things you do
are because you care

down on your knees

i'm going to look higher higher than you

down on your knees