

Bad Intentions

Niykee Heaton

This is the face I wear treading the riptide
Abysmal oceans where good girls
Go to die I wanna love somebody
Wanna feel their love all on me
But after everything I still believe in TRUE LOVE
Not being able to find it,
Damn, it tears me up
And I know it's my fault
I know it's my fault!

Let's take a trip ten thousand miles
Above the clouds, we can stay up here
Until we figure it out
Don't wanna go home,
Don't wanna be alone (be alone)

I've got some damn Bad Intentions
I've got some damn Bad Intentions
I got secrets I forgot to mention,
Haven't learned my lesson Oho oooh
I've got some damn Bad Intentions
I see the World in 25 dimensions
I've seen evil reign over perfection
Blood, heat over tension
And I know & you say you love
The way the storms blow
But when it comes, you close your window
You hate the fighting in the World
So you bring the battle home
And you fight, until it's yours,
Fight until I'm gone,
And there's holes on the walls written in the sand
Deception on my lips, and
There's blood on your hands
I'm tired of keeping lies,
You can see it in my eyes!
I don't wanna die!

I've just got some damn Bad Intentions
I've got some damn Bad Intentions
I got some secrets
I forgot to mention,
Haven't learned my lesson
Oho oooh

I've got some damn Bad Intentions
I've got some damn Bad Intentions
I got some secrets I forgot to mention,
Haven't learned my lesson Oho oooh
I know you've made a graveyard out of this song,
I know I don't feel too sober now
I wanna lie awake with your black soul
Keep count your fears if you let me
Baby, I just want Your damn Bad Intentions

I've got some damn Bad Intentions
I got some secrets I forgot to mention,

Haven't learned my lesson
Oho ooh
I've got some damn Bad Intentions
I've got some damn Bad Intentions
I got some secrets I forgot to mention,
Haven't learned my lesson
Oho ooh oh!
