If They Only Knew

Niykee Heaton

If they only knew, If they only knew

Everyone is looking at me
Thinking I'm some heartless bitch
Everyone is looking at me
But, do any of them know what you did
I'm not gonna put you on blast
I won't treat you unfairly
Because I know deep down you're the one that has to deal with what you did to me

Cuz you remember that night when I came to you, with tears in my eyes
Told you I was hurt and I begged you to hold me and I remember exactly what you said
You said I don't care

And you said, goodbye
You said, goodbye
I was broken, lost, and missing
You don't care about that, you said goodbye

If they only knew, If they only knew

I bet you told everyone I broke your heart and walked away
But do they know you broke up with me just to see what I would say
Does anyone know how I loved you so, and you treated me like yesterday
I wasted a whole year
Thinking this was love
And all I would hear is your music sucks, I don't like your songs, all you do is piss me off, I've had enough

Cuz you remember that night when I came to you, with tears in my eyes
Told you I was hurt and I begged you, please to hold me
and I remember exactly what you said
You said I don't care

And you said, goodbye
You said, goodbye
I was broken, lost, almost dead
You turned to me and said goodbye
I don't hate you, I don't blame you
Even though you broke my heart
I'm letting you know, that I'm letting you go and I hope you find someone else to love
Because I've found someone else to love
So goodbye, So goodbye
Goodbye, so goodbye, goodbye, goodbye

If they only knew, If they only knew
