

Fine Story

Nizlopi

Well, well, well, well
Fine story to tell
This lovemaking is heart unbreaking

Oh, you and your big cheeks
Have got me
Spinning around now
You and your warm mouth have got me
Talking pr, talking profound

And we're singing together
And I'm closing my eyes just to reach you
I've been
Building bridges too large
Ever since I met you, baby

Well, well, well, well
Fine story to tell
This lovemaking is heart unbreaking

Made me brand new man, ah
Fire with a big banner
Well, well, well, well
Fine story to tell

Your heart, baby, is just as big as a rock (?)
And I'm, going to se to romance
And you'll be the, you'll be the usher

My heads swarming round like a nutter
And trying to mess me up
My heart over boils with desire
And fills up my cup

Now, oh
Well, well, well, well
Fine story to tell
This lovemaking is heart unbreaking

Made me brand new man, ah
Fire with a big banner
Well, well, well, well
Fine story to tell

Its in the soil now
In the roots too
In my boots wow
All around now
On my CD
In my TV
On your lips
They're just as smiling

Quietly crying in the rain, falling
And you, bought me out of the cold
Trying just to seek out your name, darling

Well, well, well, well
Tough story to tell
That lovemaking was damn heart breaking

It made me brand new again
It sat me down with this pen

Well, well, well, well
