

Three Words

No Angels

'Cause even if I might regret it
I sometimes wish I'd never said it.
But you know I really have to thank you.

'Cause even if I might regret it
I sometimes wish I'd never said it.
But you know I really have to thank you.

Showing yourself can be so hard especially when you are not that sure that all the loving that you give will come back to you.

Throughout the years I've always tried
to give the best of my love, that's true
Maybe I didn't give it all
Baby now that I found you.

I'm giving you all that I have
and hope that you will return it too.
But nevertheless I must confess
that I'm really scared of letting go.
But if I had said those three words
maybe I'd never ever know
how good it feels to be there in your arms
for the rest of my life.

'Cause even if I might regret it
I sometimes wish I'd never said it.
But you know I really have to thank you.

'Cause even if I might regret it
I sometimes wish I'd never said it.
But you know I really have to thank you.

Now that I told you how I feel.
Tell me, do you feel the same way too.
Will you take me as I am
or walk away and leave me standing here

Throughout the years I've always tried
to give the best of my love, that's true.
Maybe I didn't give it all
Baby now that I found you.

I'm giving you all that I have
and hope that you will return it too.
But nevertheless I must confess
that I'm really scared of letting go.
But if I had said those three words
maybe I'd never ever know
how good it feels to be there in your arms
for the rest of my life.

'Cause even if I might regret it
I sometimes wish I'd never said it.
But you know I really have to thank you.

'Cause even if I might regret it
I sometimes wish I'd never said it.
But you know I really have to thank you.

I'm giving you all that I have
and hope that you will return it too.
But nevertheless I must confess
that I'm really scared of letting go.
But if I had said those three words
maybe I'd never ever know
how good it feels to be there in your arms
for the rest of my life.

'Cause even if I might regret it
I sometimes wish I'd never said it.
But you know I really have to thank you.

'Cause even if I might regret it
I sometimes wish I'd never said it.
But you know I really have to thank you.

'Cause even if I might regret it
I sometimes wish I'd never said it.
But you know I really have to thank you.

'Cause even if I might regret it
I sometimes wish I'd never said it.
But you know I really have to thank you.
