

Love To Hate To Love

No Connection

I like the taste of your kiss
But it don't feel the same
And life is so much easier
Now I don't share the blame
I'm falling for temptation
I knew that I would
Another shot of the pain
Cos it hurts so good

I love to hate and hate to love
I'd give it up but nothing's good enough
So bring it on give me more of that stuff
I love to hate
Love to hate to love

Don't want to mix it up
Cos it feels kinda strange
And the big man said
I can't afford to change
Don't tell me to compromise
I don't see why I should
I wouldn't apologise
Even if I could

I love to hate and hate to love
I'd give it up but nothing's good enough
So bring it on give me more of that stuff
I love to hate
Love to hate to love

Just two weeks of this peace
And I'm feeling the strain
Rerun the same mistakes
Watch again and again
If you think I can change
I think you misunderstood
I could never subscribe
To your cheep brotherhood

I love to hate and hate to love
I'd give it up but nothing's good enough
So bring it on give me more of that stuff
I love to hate
Love to hate to love
