

By the Way

No Doubt

By the way
Every little thing about her face
Fills him up
The image so pleasing it could never be erased
Here to stay
Embedded in his mind
He wishes they could be together all the time
By the way
She says things, the tone, just to hear her voice
He can't explain
The sound so exciting to him a perfect choice
Embedded in his mind
He wishes they could be together all the time

A crazy independent Spanish speaking
Arty flirty red wine drinking
Sexy tomboy with a natural way of Thinking carefree
And innocent she's slightly sneaky
Confidently proud from another country
Has her way, lives for today
By the way she's far away

By the way
Holding her, hugging her can feel so warm
Just think about it
Two bodies embracing, creating love in this form
Embedded in his mind
He wishes they could be together all the time

A crazy independent Spanish speaking
Arty flirty red wine drinking
Sexy tomboy with a natural way of
Thinking crazy

Then she kissed him and she went away
Far across to San Francisco Bay
You'd think that she would think again
And only want to be with him
Regardless of the things that pull her far away
She's far away

A crazy independent Spanish speaking
Arty flirty red wine drinking
Sexy tomboy with a natural way of
Thinking crazy
By the way she's far away
And by the way she's far away

A crazy independent Spanish speaking
Arty flirty red wine drinking
By the way she's far away
Ooh - far away - oh
A crazy independent Spanish speaking
Arty flirty red wine drinking

By the way she's far away
