

Detective

No Doubt

Peek in, sneak about peek in, sneak about your broken hearted detective

hey girl save the liar
can't you see his pants on fire
hey girl, save the liar
can't you see his pants on fire

my back it hurts again
it aches like history cottonmouth and all lit up your smiling back at me, but I feel you must have failed me once again you've let me down my confidence below my knees now I need to find you out

[Chorus:]
Peek in, sneak about
I'm gonna snoop and call you out
I've caught you, you're hands are red
Now I'm your broken hearted detective

Hey, hey hey

Hey lover why the gun?
Hold on I'm almost there It's too late you've killed the trust Don't act so unaware

Why are you so destructive?
Do you realize what you've done?
you can't bring it back to life now What are you running from?

[Chorus]

I don't like the way it feels I just want you to be real

Hey girl, save the liar
Can't you see his pants on fire?
Can't you see his pants on fire?

I'm rummaging through your closet Imagining all the worst thoughts

[Chorus 2x]

Peek in, peek in Peek in, peek in Peek in, sneak about
I'm gonna snoop and call you out
I've caught you, you're hands are red

Now I'm you're brokenhearted detective
