

Man With The Powers

No Fun At All

Before you tell me that no one is free
The world before me was not much to see
I wanna tell you I suffer no shame
Sit here so proudly the world is a game

Cause, I'm the man with the power inside of my I'm the man with the power inside of my
I'm the man with the power inside of my head

To tell you truly I'll never give in
All of those people still living in sin
I'm gonna show them there's no use to fight
I'll chase the pagans back into the night

I know my purpose
I know my time
I know my purpose
I know my time

And I look into the eye of evil and laugh
Yeah, I look into the eye of evil and laugh
