

Mr. Philosophy

No Innocent Victim

Try to look wise
Philosophical words
It's all a disguise
To boost your self worth
Must speak above
The ones that you mock
They converse and express
By using straight talk
So deep, know everything
What you don't know you'll make up
Go impress the masses
I think it's time you wake up
Make the stream cloudy
With the mud from beneath
Stir up the waters
To make them look deep
The more shallow they are
The easier disturbed
Try to conceal your depth
With your newest big words
So deep, know everything
What you don't know you'll make up
Go impress the masses
I think it's time you wake up
You're seeing you
As being so wise
As people look up
Adoration filled eyes
You got so caught up
It's no longer a game
It's a pyramid plan
In building your name
So deep, know everything
What you don't know you'll make up
Go impress the masses
Wake up
You don't impress me
Mr. Philosophy
You don't impress me
Mr. Philosophy
You don't impress me
