

Taste My Dream

No-Man

Sometimes I see you
Stand by your window
Staring at the sky
your laughter stolen
Your spirit unwoke
Life in search of life
Can you feel my heat?
Can you hear my words
Echo in your room?
I hear your breathing
Those nights of needing Hold onto something wild
so sick of fighting
So tired of writing
You break down like a child
can you taste my dream?
Can you see my light
Sparkle through the gloom?
can you taste my dream?
Can you see my light?
Can you taste my dream?
Can you see my light?
can you see my light?
