Why the noise And why the protest? Why try to talk When it's all been said? Why the dream And why the dreaming? Why try to get away When there's no place ahead? Feel the way teardrops fall. Feel the weight Teardrop fall. Teardrop fall. Why the rage And why the anger? Why try to fight When you've got no defense? Why the hope And why the hoping? Why try to understand When it never made sense? Shut your mouth Close your eyes. Don't try to answer, Don't try to try. Feel the way teardrops fall. Feel the weight Teardrop fall. Teardrop fall. Teardrop fall. Shut your mouth Close your eyes. Ah, don't try to answer, Don't try to try. Feel the way teardrops fall. Feel the weight Teardrop fall. Teardrop fall. Teardrop fall.
