

Girl In The Sea

No More Kings

We pulled up the anchor
Waving goodbye to the town that had cradled me
Two weeks now at sea, starting to get to me
I think I'm crazy

(Oohhhhh) There in the water
(Oohhhhh) I'm not scared, but I oughta be

All the legends of old, the stories they told
Schemes are for dreamers, meant nothing to me
Now my disbelief, lay smashed at my feet
'Cause I saw the girl in the sea

Back at the harbor
Still I am swimming with her in my mind
In my Davy Jones' locker
I'll keep my secret where no one can find it

(Oohhhhh) They'd never believe me
(Oohhhhh) I see her so clearly

All the legends of old, the stories they told
The schemes are for dreamers, sweet music to me
I'm lost in a dream, my heart wants to sing
All for the girl in the sea

Each day that goes by, each wave we ride
Seems to remind me it all was a dream
I guess my memory
Got the best of me
This time

(Oohhhhh) The sounds so familiar
(Oohhhhh) What could it be? (What could it be? What could it be

All the legends of old, the stories they told
The schemes of the dreamers, sweet music to me
I'm lost in a dream, my heart wants to sing
All for the girl in the sea

All the legends of old, the stories they told
The schemes of the dreamers, dreamers like me
I'm lost in a dream, my heart wants to sing
All for the girl in the sea
