

Give Me Strength

No Motiv

Another day
Another dollar to go on
You've lost your way
Gotta find another savior
Cause modern man
Has something more to it all
You've lost your touch
And you're falling out of luck
Did you lose something on your way down here?
And I forgot my sin
And I'm losing it all
Give me strength
Give me power to go on
Hear me say all those good things you are
You lost a day to living in the fear of
What might delay a finding of better ways
