

Tracking down the missing link seeing everything in blank watching everything sink seeing everything
END
i'm trying hard to give myself a reason to stop questioning to begin did you ever stop before you started did you ever give in without trying without trying do you sometimes write without sorrow do you sometimes love without heart do you sometimes have you ever have you ever wasted ink more wasted ink
