On the Outside

No Use for a Name

I'll see you on the outside and we'll
Never be the same
After all that's happened what is it that We've gained?
Well I've made mistakes before and
Never lived them down
After all you've done for me i'm bound
(don't say another word)
To see you on the outside where we can

Both be sane (you're speaking for yourself) I'm bleeding on the inside A place you might have been but now I Know I'll (never be the same)

Well I heard you got a place and it's far Away from here Reality has sunken in now confirming All my fears I'm not gonna track you down and it's Too late to stop Thinking 'bout the time that we have lost (I'm happy without you)

I'm trying to forget you and everything We had (we didn't stand a chance) We're miserable and it's true I haven't Learned a thing But now I know I'll trust no one else

(There was a time when we were back And forth, it wasn't easy) I guess that we're back where we belong One thing is for sure, it wasn't strong

I'll see you on the outside where we can
Both feel shame
(you've never been more right)
I'm dying on the inside, you're never
Coming back
And now I know whatever we go through
My heart is stuck with you
