

It's Obvious

NOA

It's obvious you're special
I've known it all along
I suspected you from the moment you flew through my window
And fell to the floor
Saying I'm yours.
Take me, I'm yours.

And it's obvious I'm crazy
With every hazy dawn
I inspect myself, and in light of my plight I am certain
As loud I may roar
My eyes will implore
How fully I'm yours.

Have you ever been told you're too utterly bold to be true?
With a flash of your smile
I am baffled, beguiled,
I'm bewildered by you.
Do you know love you inspire
Would make me fly higher than I've ever flown before?
Now inspire me to more
Inspire me to more.
