

Blue Skies

Noah and the Whale

This is a song for anyone with a broken heart
This is a song for anyone who cant get out of bed
I would do anything to be happy
Oh cause blue skies are coming, but I know that it's hard

This the last song that I write while still in love with you
This the last song that I write while youre even on my mind
Cause it's time to leave those feelings behind
Oh cause blue skies are coming, but I know that it's hard

I don't think that it's the end, but I know we can't keep going
I don't think that it's the end, but I know we can't keep going
But blue skies are coming (blue skies are coming)
Oh yeah, blue skies are coming (blue skies are coming)
Oh, but blue skies are coming, but I know that it's hard
