

Rocks and Daggers

Noah and the Whale

The rocks
they will always hold in the sea and erosion can't stop their being oh no currents can defeat them and I am thankful for the love these rocks have always given

And although this boat is steady now one wave could pull me under and I'll be stranded out at sea and I will pray that those rocks will be there for me and the sun always shines down on your shoes could be a blue blue christmas for you 'cos when the sun always shines down on your shoes

could be a blue blue christmas for you

I love the way that your hair is always neat and your skirts fall below your knees and your love is so pure and so clean

Oh, it comforts me (4x)

I love the way that you're always surprised oh, to find truth in all my lies 'cos you trust me and ignore my disguise

Oh, it comforts me (4x)

But there's no need to play with my heart (x15)
