

Silver and Gold

Noah and the Whale

[Verse:]

Well, I was looking for "Harvest", but I only found "Silver and Gold"
Finding my way out, I was only fifteen years old.
Somebody asked me "What you're gonna do with your life?"
And I stared out into nothing, searching for the answer that's right.

[Pre-Chorus:]

But it's okay to not always be sure exactly where you wanna go
And love may not be the cure, that's something I'll never know.

[Chorus:]

Oh, but show a little faith in me,
I'm standing right in front of you.
And show a little faith in me,
Over the passing of time.

[Verse:]

Oh, my natural composure to try and show kindness and truth
It's something inside me, but maybe one day I'll cut loose.
But don't look for perfection, that is all that away,
We could surrender, if you feel brave then you'll stay.

[Pre-Chorus:]

Cause it's okay to not always be sure exactly what it is you found
And love may not be the cure, but it's at least a common ground.

[Chorus:]

So just show a little faith in me,
I'm standing right in front of you.
And show a little faith in me,
Over the passing of time.

[Bridge:]

And we're just hanging on to a glimmer of hope
In a world that's so unsure.
And you're just hanging on to a glimmer of hope
Of the life you had before,
But it's too late.

[Chorus:]

So just show a little faith in me,
I'm standing right in front of you.
And show a little faith in me,
Over the passing of time,
Over the passing of time,
Over the passing of time.
