

Forego your hope
Save it from the ashes
Of the will you wrote
Everything passes away
Hold out for what you thought you were making
Just long enough to realize you're going the wrong way

Oh you hold my heart forever
But I can't hold onto what's not there
May you blossom like a flower
May you go dancing in the air

Give up
Give back all that was taken
Return
Relax
This feeling is not here to stay

Oh you hold my heart forever
But I can't hold onto what's not there
May you blossom like a flower
May you go dancing in the air
