

Ledges

Noah Gundersen

I got a lot of loose end
I've done some damage
I've cut the ropes,
So it frayed.

And I got a lot of good friends
Keeping me distracted
Keeping my sanity
Safe

Here I stand on the edge of the ledges
I have made, looking for a steady hand
Here I stand in the land of the rocks in the valley
Trying to be a better man for you

And I drink a little too much
It makes me nervous
I've got my grandfather's
Blood

And I take a little too much
Without giving back
If blessed are the meek
Then I am cursed

I want to learn how to love
Not just the feeling bear all the consequences

I wanna learn how to love
And give it all back
Forgive me all that I have done
