

The Devil's Child

Nocturnal Rites

Born into sin,
a lust for the evil
Betrayed and deceived, been giving his number Serpent of death, child of the darkness
A servant to torture, a slave to power

Twisting his mind, the ways of the wicked
There's no turning back

Ten thousand eyes, hiding the glory
Who's the chosen one?
Who could have known, death ws a blessing
It's the Devil's Child

The power he holds, witness the progress
His senses unfold; the choice has been made
Eyes lit with fire, a snake in disguise Collector of souls, the work must go on
