

Tower

Noe Venable

There is an ocean
I have been holding in my hands
There is an ocean
I have been holding back for years
Where I was standing
Now I am rocking to and fro
Will you still love me
After you see this tower come down?

We used to play at
Light as a feather stiff as a board
We used to play at
Listening in to the darker world
Oh how strangely
Applicable those games seem now
Will you still know me
After you see this tower come down?

Girl i've forgotten
How to be brave could you show me how?
Girl I'd forgotten,
Where did you go? I'm lonely now
