It Ain't Lonely at the Bottom

I look around I look around me So many things to do There's so many things to see I'm lookin' up at The Upper Crusties I know they pity me Because I do what I please

It may be lonely at the top But for those of us who couldn't stop We've got a hundred dozen friends Who make sure the party never ends We're at a one-way dead end cul-de-sac I hit rock bottom, but it didn't hit back I gotta say, this really ain't so bad

It's a funny thing, it's never lonely I really can't complain because it feels like home to me Tell me to quit and talking shit about I really gotta say, this bottom ain't so bad

I got a demon juggernaut from battles I already fought I put the cog in cognition, I'll sign my last resignation There is a neon sign and a wooden plaque They say, you've hit the bottom, we knew you'd be back I gotta say, it really ain't so bad

Tell me to quit, I'm sick of hearing it Don't see the benefit cause it's really not so bad Just kinda sad