

I wish I could go so far away
Where time moves too slow day after day
I'll wait and I'll sit and watch the clouds
As they go by.

I have a sensation where lazyness,
Procrastination is what I do best
I'll wait and I'll sit and watch the clouds
As they go by.

Where has my ambition gone
I haven't seen it for so long
Am I a burden to someone?
I am so tired of everything
All my desire is vanishing.
